

Please do not overturn the ruling for NJ's "Do Not Call list". My elderly mother has been solicited by numerous telemarketers in the past, and has been unable to reason with them due to the loss of her mental acuity. I too have had my life interrupted by unsolicited calls for services and products I do not need. I hope you can consider the privacy rights of the citizens who just want to be left alone. Thank you.